The Football Coaches Reference Site is pleased to announce the launch of two new programs; the Partner Program and the Fundraising Program.

The Football Coaches Reference Site is pleased to announce the launch of two new programs; the Partner Program and the Fundraising Program. The Football Coaches Reference Site, <http://www.coachteed.com>, provides quality coaching information to football coaches of all ages and all levels.

The Partner Program has been created to help coaches that have a website to generate income. For each sale of a DVD Set from their site, they will earn $5.00. This would be a great idea for any site looking to make a little extra money.

The Fundraising Program is designed to help football teams and leagues generate income to help with expenses such as equipment, travel, etc. Each team or league will earn $10.00 for each sale of a DVD Playbook Set that comes from their site.

The necessary HTML code, for both programs, will be provided will be provided at no additional cost and can be placed anywhere on the site to sell the DVD Set.

Coachteed.com, described as "Awesome" by Kenyatta Wright of the NY Jets, provides information about coaching football, (including offense, defense, and special teams) as well as providing over 1000 football playbooks available for at a very low or zero cost. The site also offers a large "FREE" section featuring playbooks, drills, practice guides, work out plans, and more. All items found in this section are available for immediate download. This section will continue to grow as there are hundreds of files that need to be listed.

Playbooks are available:

1. Individually for $1.00 each
2. 3 DVD set containing over 2000 playbooks for $30.00

All orders include free shipping and handling.

The Football Coaches Reference Site was founded in 2003 to provide quality information to every football coach.

The more information we, as coaches, share, the better our teams will be!
